

You are impressionably early
In this state of your young sweet mind
I know it'll all work out
If you only take your sweet time

You push and you pull, away
You push and you pull, don't stray
Stay Comfortable, you'll grow Into your own skin

The world the world
is so much bigger bigger than you can see right now

You are impossible to control
But you can control it
They're firing at you from all around
Be still but don't remain

You push and you pull, away
You push and you pull, don't stray
Stay Comfortable, you'll growiInto your own skin

The world the world
is so much bigger bigger

NOW!
You'll grow....
